Dear Rev. Comninos,

Hereunder what I promised.

To whom it may concern,

As the co-author of A Grammar of Biblical Hebrew [Subsidia biblica 27] (Pontifical Biblical Institute Press, Rome: 2006, 2nd ed.] I am truly grateful for a few lengthy lists of corrections and suggested improvements I received over a number of years from Rev. Comninos. It was evident that he is very familiar with the intricacies and details of Biblical Hebrew grammar. The enormous time and energy he must have expended on compiling these lists also testifies to his enthusiasm for this biblical language. Almost all the points he made have been incorporated into the grammar itself or included in the list of errata appended to the recent reprint (2010) of the 2006 edition. There my indebtedness to Rev. Comninos is explicitly mentioned.

Prof. (emeritus) Dr. T. Muraoka
Leiden University,
The Netherlands.
